

The 2015 Pan Am Games: A Mayor's Perspective

Mayor David Miller
City of Toronto

Mayor Fred Eisenberger
City of Hamilton

Mayor Brian McMullan
City of St. Catharines

Friday March 12th, 2010
7:30am – 9:30am

The National Club
303 Bay Street, Toronto

Toronto and the Greater Golden Horseshoe were recently awarded the 2015 Pan American and Parapan American Games. Global Public Affairs is pleased to present "A Mayors Perspective", featuring Mayors of three of the biggest cities participating in the 2015 games.

Join Toronto Mayor David Miller, Hamilton Mayor Fred Eisenberger, and St. Catharines Mayor Brian McMullan as they offer their perspective on the upcoming games. The many host cities and communities will be faced with a number of challenges and opportunities over the next five years. What innovative solutions will be required to ensure the games are a success? How do we secure the promised legacy for the entire region?

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This briefing is a must for the GTA and GGH business community, urban planners, municipal lawyers, union reps, academics, real estate developers, Chambers of Commerce/Boards of Trade, BIAs, and government officials.

Produced by:

GLOBAL • PUBLIC • AFFAIRS

Sponsored by:

Plenary Group

Regular Registration Fee

$149.00 per person plus GST

For Information

Call 416-597-3476

or email

ewagdin@globalpublic.com

Register online at www.globalpublic.com